Patriot of the Year Award Ceremony

Seabee Don Rowley

The Daytona Beach Concert Band held a Memorial Day free concert tribute for the area sponsored by the Lohman Funeral Home and the local American Legion. The local military organizations were notified to submit a Patriot of the Year award to honor one of their members. There were seventeen names submitted. We were honored to have two Seabees selected for the awards. Seabee Island X-19 submitted Joe Licata's name for his untiring dedication to assist fellow veterans in need, gathering personal items to be sent to a deployed battalion at Christmas time and visiting persons in the hospitals. Seabee Don Rowley was nominated by the Deland Naval Air Station Museum for his efforts in construction a 40'X50' pavilion and the disassembling of a butler type building to be reconstructed at the museum site in the future.

Seabee's Cleanup in Longmont, Colorado

The Seabees of Island X-4 along with their Honey Bees, of Longmont, Colorado cleaned two miles of trash from a major highway in the area on May 12th. The effort was led by Secretary Jerry Kissinger who coordinated the event with the Colorado Department of Transportation. This is the Bi-Annual cleanup of the highway. The effort was completed in the rain, culminated with 30 bags of trash being cleaned from the highway.

VETERANS MEMORIAL DEDICATION
Village of Bergen, NY

On June 9th 2018, the Village of Bergen, NY and American Legion Post #575 dedicated a beautiful, highly polished black marble Monument in the memory of all veterans who have, are serving and will serve our Great Country. This Memorial was first conceived by the Post Commander and NSVA X-12 member, Seabee Tom Williamson. Tom presented his concept to the village for approval, once approved he organized volunteers, village of Bergen DPW resources, solicited private company donations and resources to coordinate and develop the time line to complete the project. Too many volunteers, Legion members and contractors worked on this Memorial to individually mention. Tom did comment that everyone took on the “Can Do” attitude and had “sweat equity” invested in the project, they pitched in whenever needed and worked on whatever was needed to complete the project in time for the dedication. A parade led by the Genesee County Honor Guard, followed by Armed Services units, High School Marching Bands, Political Dignitaries, numerous local business floats etc.

Seabee Louis J. Rossi
NSVA Island X-19, Syracuse, NY

Lou Rossi has been a fixture for as long as I can remember with NSVA Island X-19, his Life Member number is only 3 digits long. Lou was recently recognized by Island X-19 for his dedication and contributions while in the military and as a member of X-19 at the Department of New York Executive Committee Meeting on 5/5/18.

Seabee Lou Rossi enlisted in the Army on December 2nd, 1948. After boot camp he was stationed in Japan at Camp Zoma Replacement Depot, assigned to the 70th Signal Corp in Yokohama. After a few months he requested to be transferred to the Army Engineers and was assigned to the 584th Engineers Construction group. In early 1950 the 584 was decommissioned and he was transferred to the 43rd Engineers Construction Battalion. When the Korean War began, A Co. from the 43rd was designated for deployment in Korea and left Yokosuka on July 15th, 1950 arriving in Hong Dong Korea on July 18th, 1950 with the 1st Cavalry. After 3 weeks in Korea, A Co. was ordered to turn in their carbines and were issued M-1 Garand's. They were then informed they were now B Co. in the 14th Combat Engineers. The 14th moved north as far as Anjir, N. Korea. Lou's squad was given orders to blow up a bridge and to move south. They had the charges all set when a colonel crossed the bridge from the north and asked them what they were doing. They told him what the orders were, he explained his regiment was on the north side of the river and headed their way. They proceeded to give the plunger to the colonel's men and asked them to blow the bridge after their guys had crossed. Lou met the GI he gave the plunger too many years later in Utica, NY. After 13 months in Korea, Lou was discharged in 1951 at Fort Benning GA.

In November, 1952 Lou enlisted in the Navy, completed boot camp at Great Lakes, IL. And received orders for the USS Quail (AM-377) a mine sweeper where you could get sea sick when tied up to the pier. After a few months on the Quail, Lou had a yeoman type a letter stating that he had 3 years' experience in the Combat Engineers, why the hell was he stationed on a mine sweeper! Shortly thereafter in 1953 he received orders to meet MCB-7 in Gitmo, then it was on to Morocco in '54, New Found land in '55. In '56 he was assigned to a detachment planting sea grass on the sand dunes around Nantucket Is. In '56 he was sent back to New Found Land to finish his enlistment.

In 1957 Lou enlisted in the Air Force and spent 1 year in Plattsburg, NY and 3 years in England hauling ICBM's on 90 ft. trailers. When May of 1961 rolled around, Lou re-enlisted in the Navy. He received orders for Ice Land for a year, then was assigned to ACB-2 in Little Creek VA. In December of '63 he arrived in Japan, assigned to Marine Air Station at Ewokuni, Japan. In July '65 he returned stateside to Port Hueneme, CA. for military training and was deployed in August to join MCB-10 in Chu Lai, Republic of Viet Nam. In '66 Lou made a second deployment with MCB-10 in RVN. In August of '66 Lou received orders for shore duty and was stationed at Clarksville, TN. In '68 Lou returned to Port Hueneme, CA. where he joined MCB-11 and completed 2 deployments in Viet Nam, the 1st at Quang Tri and the second at Camp Rhodes.

Lou returned stateside and retired as EO-1 on the same day MCB-11 was decommissioned, December 15, 1969.

The following Island Coin was designed and manufactured for our Island by a Seabee brother in Gulfport. We found after attempting to pass a military license plate for the Seabees through the Colorado State Legislature. There is a lack of knowledge about who the Seabees are. We will use the coin as a way to educate people we come in contact with.

MCB-12 Association is a large Seabee fraternal association including Seabees from MCB 12, 27, CBU 202, NCR's, many other battalions and CBC Davisville. The Davisville Museum & Memorial Park is nearby in Rhode Island. The Annual Reunion is always the last weekend of September and has been at this Hampton Inn and White's Restaurant for many years because of the superb service of the Inn, the free breakfast, and the gourmet, endless buffet style dinner. Live DJ playing our favorite music for dancing and great fun with old and new friends. Hotel books out fast, so please reserve your room as soon as possible. 110 Seabees plus guests attended the 2017 Reunion. Westport is a historic coastal town close-by CAPE COD, Providence, RI, a Battleship Cove Museum, and a Whaling Museum.

SEABEE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP ASSOCIATION

In past issues the editor of the Can Do has acknowledged donations to the Seabee Memorial Scholarship Association as provided by the National Secretary. I have received requests from numerous NSVA members requesting the Can Do resume this practice. I feel the acknowledgement and recognition in the Can Do is duly warranted. I would like to begin with this issue, but have only one acknowledgement that I'm aware of at this time.

A check in the amount of $500.00 has been donated and acknowledged by the SMSA from NSVA Island X-9 Kingston, New York in the name of NSVA member Edward T. Roser.

I received a suggestion that the Can Do could use a little Honey Bee touch. Perhaps something that would entice our Honey Bees to look over the Can Do a little closer. With that being said, I have posted a recipe for Grandma's Brownies. Please share this with your Honey Bee and if she wishes to submit a recipe for sharing I'd be glad to consider it. Submitted receipts will be limited to one page in the publication.
