Name tag should be worn on the right side, 8" below the shoulder seam. (add picture from NSVA and right/left terms).

ARTICLE III.

OBJECTS AND POLICIES

Section 1. To preserve and encourage constant interest in National Defense and the maintenance of a strong Navy and Naval Reserve and to promote the objectives of the Navy SVA, Inc.

Section 2. To foster and maintain patriotic, historical and educational interest in Seabee activity. To assist Seabees in distress, their surviving spouse and orphans, to perform charitable work within the limitation of available funds.

Section 3. To operate as an Auxiliary to the Navy SVA, Inc., not for profit, so that no part of the income or assets of this organization shall revert to the personal benefit of any of its officers or members, nor to be distributable thereto, even though this organization shall be dissolved. (See Article 15, Section 1, on dissolution.)

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The Navy Seabee Veterans of America, Inc., recognizes an Auxiliary known as the “Navy Seabee Veterans of America Auxiliary”(hereinafter referred to as Navy SVAA).

A. The Navy SVAA shall be governed by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the National Seabee Veterans of America, and thereafter promulgated by each Department or Island of the Navy SVAA and these By-laws.

Section 2. Eligibility of membership in the Navy SVAA shall be limited to:

A. Mothers, fathers, spouses, widows, widowers, sisters, brothers, daughters, sons, stepchildren, granddaughters and grandsons (over the age of 18) of any Seabee who served under honorable conditions in time of war, hot or cold, in any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States of America, who served with or were attached to, or is now serving with a Unit under the command of the Civil Engineering Corp of the United States Navy the Bureau of Yards and Docks, or the current Naval Facilities Command.

Section 3. Types of membership

- A. Active – Active membership in the Navy SVAA shall be limited in accordance with reference (Section 2 Article A.) However, local island auxiliaries may issue local membership to a class of Associate Members in accordance with Section 3 Article B, as well as Honorary Membership in accordance with Section 3 Article C.
- a. An active member is a National member who pays Navy SVAA dues, participates in its activities, accepts committee work and maintains regular attendance.
- B. Associate Members – Local Island Auxiliaries may issue Local Membership cards to a class of Associate Members. Associate Members within the Local Auxiliary hold no office, have no vote or right to propose motions, but may, if granted, speak and vote on any subject of social or civic activity. Associate members do not pay dues to Navy SVAA.
- C. Honorary Membership – an Honorary Membership for Meritorious Service or an Act may be awarded by the National Navy SVAA President, approved by the National Executive Committee, with the same privileges as an Associate Member. Honorary members do not pay dues to Navy SVAA.

ARTICLE V. ORGANIZATION

ISLAND X

Section 1. Island Auxiliaries. Auxiliary Units shall be designated Navy SVAA Island X-(Serial Number) – usually that of the local NSVA Island. Island X-Auxiliaries serial number and/or names shall be approved by National Headquarters.

- A. A minimum of three (3) members are needed to organize a Navy SVAA Island. The officers of an Island Auxiliary shall be, at least: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and a Chaplain. Other than the President, all other officers' titles and duties can be combined in any combination as to allow the Auxiliary to function efficiently. An example could be Secretary/Treasurer.
- B. A membership application shall be provided to the National Navy SVAA for each member (minimum 3) to start an Island. National Navy SVAA dues of $2.50 for each member shall be submitted with the application to the National Navy SVAA Treasurer.
  - a. Upon completion membership cards will be issued by the National NavySVAA Secretary to the Navy SVAA Island President.
  - b. A charter shall be issued and signed by the National Navy SVAA President and National Navy SVAA Secretary in accordance with Article VII and upon receipt of dues as directed in Article VII Section 2.
- C. The President of an Island will have five (5) "Official pins" made available to the Island by the National Secretary. Therefore when a new member joins an Island, the Island President will present an "official" membership pin to the new member. It is at the Island's President discretion if this presentation is during a local meeting or special ceremony.
- D. The Island Secretary will notify the National Secretary when additional "official pins" are needed.
- E. The Island Secretary will send a list of all current Island members to include each member's name, address, e-mail address, and identifying Island officers to the National Secretary following the Island's annual collection of dues, so that new/updated membership cards may be issued to the current members.

NAVY SEABEE VETERANS OF AMERICA AUXILIARY BYLAWS

- F. The Island Secretary or Chaplain shall provide to the National Chaplain the name of any current member who is ill or deceased during the current year.
- G. The Island Treasurer will send Dues (payable to National Navy SVAA) by 1 July of each year to the National Treasurer, as well as an updated list of each current member's name, address, and e-mail address if applicable.
- H. An Island Auxiliary may adopt by-laws of the National NSVA or operate under the policies of the National NSVA.
- I. Each Island Auxiliary is encouraged to decide the purpose of their Island's activities and to participate in National Navy SVAA meetings, conventions, projects, etc.
- J. Any member in good standing who moves to a new area and desires to affiliate with an Auxiliary in the area where the member takes residency, shall inform the present Island Secretary. The present Island Secretary shall notify in writing the Island Secretary to which the member wishes to transfer. The accepting Island Secretary shall, in writing, notify the National Secretary of the transfer and updated membership in the Navy SVAA.

DEPARTMENTS

Section 1. Department Locations – There shall be no more than one Navy SVAA Department in each state, one in the District of Columbia, and one each in such Zones and/or Territories outside the continental limits of the United States as may be determined by National Headquarters.

Section 2. Department Purpose – Navy SVAA Departments shall be formed to assist in organizing Island Auxiliaries, and to coordinate their activities and expansion.

Section 3. Department Composition – A minimum of two (2) Navy SVAA Islands shall be required to organize a Department in any State or Area, and to maintain its status as an active Navy SVAA Department. A Navy SVAA Department can only be formed if there is already an existing Navy SVA Department.

A. Each Department and Island Auxiliary shall conform to the pattern of the National Navy SVAA and shall operate under a charter issued by the National Navy SVAA and signed by the National President and National Secretary with the approval of issuance by National Headquarters Officers.

B. Upon written application of the Presidents of the two or more Island Auxiliaries of the State or Area, the National President shall direct that notices be sent to all Island Auxiliaries within the State or Area of a proposed organization meeting inviting such Auxiliary to be represented. The organizational meeting shall present and vote on organizing a Department, with each Island present having one (1) vote, elect officers (see Article V, Section 1-B), draft and/or adopt By-laws which must conform in policy with National Navy SVAA. The Department Secretary shall notify the Navy SVAA National President and forward a copy of the proposed Department By-laws with the Charter fee (as outlined in Article VII, section 2) to be checked by the National Parliamentarian, and approved by National Headquarters Officers. When these requirements have been met, a Department Charter will be issued by National Headquarters.

C. Where there is no Department, a Navy SVAA Charter shall be issued by the national President and National Secretary, upon receipt of application made by those who desire to form an Island Auxiliary, and meeting the qualifications and requirements as outlined in these By-laws, and upon forwarding dues (see Article VI, Section 2) and a charter fee to National Headquarters.

D. The application for a Navy SVAA Island Charter where there is a Department shall be approved by Department Headquarters Officers, upon said Island Auxiliaries meeting the qualifications and requirements, as outlined in these By-laws, and forwarding dues and a Charter fee to National Headquarters. Island Auxiliary Charters within a Department shall be countersigned by the Department President and Secretary.

E. Where there is no Navy SVAA Department in the State, Territory or Area in which an Island Auxiliary is located, at the request of the members of the Auxiliary, National Headquarters may designate the Department to which they will be assigned, until there shall be a Department in that State, Territory or Area. Auxiliaries assigned to a Department shall not be required to pay dues and shall hold no office. Navy SVAA Islands assigned to a Department shall be for the purpose of said Department assisting them in their activities and in meeting the objectives of this organization.

NATIONAL AUXILIARY AT LARGE

Section 1 Members residing in a State, Territory or Area where there is no active Navy SVAA Island, may be assigned membership in the Navy SVAA National Island-at-Large, until such time as an active Island Auxiliary is organized in their State, Territory or Area, and an application for transfer is made to the National Navy SVAA Vice President who is the President of the National Island-at-Large.

Section 2 The National Navy SVAA Vice President is the President of the National Island At Large.

Section 3 Dues for Members At Large, that are not paid by June 30 of the current fiscal year, shall be declared delinquent. If member's dues are not paid by December 31, they will be dropped from the rolls.
